Experience a unique adventure through the heart of Jordan, where history, unspoiled natural beauty, and adventure intertwine in the special "Eye of Jordan" tour. The adventure starts in Jerash, an ancient city dating back to the Bronze Age, and is home to Jordan's most impressive Roman ruins: colonnaded boulevards, temples, sprawling theaters, and minor Byzantine churches are all remarkably intact. You will experience the unparalleled sensation of floating in the Dead Sea, Earth's lowest point, where the salt density is so high that the water will effortlessly keep you afloat. Next, you will visit gorgeous Petra, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where the rose-red city was carved directly from a sheer rock face that creates a landscape quite unlike what you have ever seen—will definitely be left breathless. The journey continues in Wadi Rum, famous for its red-pink sands, hulking mountains, and large rock arches. The desert landscape is simply some of the most majestic land you'll see in the world, and the exhilarating
